

PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated: August 2025

Kgadibotse ("we", "our", or "us") is committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is collected and used properly, lawfully, and transparently in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA), Act 4 of 2013.

1. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We may collect and process the following personal information:

Full name and surname

Contact details (email, phone number, address)

Company or organisation details

Website usage data (cookies, IP addresses, analytics data)

Any personal information voluntarily provided through contact forms, emails, or calls

2. HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

Your personal information is used for:

Responding to enquiries and providing services

Communicating important updates and administrative information

Improving our website, services, and customer experience

Legal or regulatory compliance

We will not use your information for any purpose other than what it was collected for without your consent.

3. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

We may share your personal information with:

Service providers who help us operate our website and deliver services

Legal authorities when required by law

Business partners with your prior consent

We will never sell your personal information.

4. DATA SECURITY

We take appropriate security measures to prevent loss, misuse, or unauthorised access to personal information. However, no system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

5. YOUR RIGHTS UNDER POPIA

As a data subject, you have the right to:

Request access to your personal information

Request correction or deletion of your personal information

Object to the processing of your personal information

Lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator

Contact details of the Information Regulator (South Africa):
